

The Logicians

It's Debatable...

How logically you debate? Well, if you are an engaging and logical debater, then “The Logicians” provides you a platform to impress, convince, and win the rebuttal. The stage is yours; speak, evolve, convince, negate, and be the best ‘Logician’.

General Rules –

1. No. of ‘Logicians’ in each team must be 2 (two) – one be the Speaker, and the other be Negator.
2. There will be a Debate Moderator – the neutral participant (will be decided by the organizers) who will control the proceedings.
3. The ‘speaker’ of each team will get maximum 4 minutes to speak out their content either in favour or against the motion.
4. The ‘negator’ of each team has to write down some powerful points spoken by the rival ‘speaker’; and then negate those points when asked by the Moderator. ‘Negator’ of each team will get maximum 2 minutes to negate opposition’s points.
5. After the completion of Speakers’ and Negators’ points, the Moderator will pose one question to each team, which needs to be answered by the team in maximum 60 seconds.
6. The ‘moderator’ cannot be questioned back in any case.
7. Speakers will be rated on the basis of content and communication skills out of 10. Negators will be rated on the basis of their ability to negate the rivals point (out of 5). Answers to final question from moderator will be rated out of 5. So, top 2 teams getting best scores out of 20, will be rewarded.
8. In case of any conflict; decision of jury/organisers will be considered final.

Special Note-

- Competition will conducted in two different categories-
 - University/College Level.
 - School Level.
- Topics of debate will be announced two days prior the event at sabrang.jkl.u.edu.in and will be mailed to participants registered Email IDs.

Coordinators –

1. Sahil Bagwan – 8742884959
2. Aditya Sharma – 8085460314

Event Managers -

1. Muskaan Jain – 8126563757
2. Rajul Kaushik – 7597587648
3. Karan Sharma – 9958433968